

Human Development and Services Department

336-334-7916

H

Departmental graduates pursue professional careers within a variety of human service settings; including, but not limited to, schools, higher education, public and private counseling centers, rehabilitation agencies, community development organizations, non-profit agencies, private corporations, clinical mental health agencies, and university extension programs. Students are also prepared and encouraged to continue their education through doctoral work in their respective fields.

Degree Programs

- Adult Education– Master of Science
- Community Counseling– Master of Science
- Rehabilitation Counseling- Master of Science
- School Administration– Master of Science
- School Counseling– Master of Science
- Proposed PhD in Rehabilitation Counseling

Certificate Programs

- Marriage and Family Counseling
- School Administration
- Rehabilitation Counseling and Behavioral Addiction
- Rehabilitation Psychology and Behavioral Medicine
- Vocational Evaluation and Work Adjustment
- Proposed Community College Teaching

Program Coordinators' Contact Information

Interested candidates are advised to contact the program's coordinator for more information.

- Adult Education Coordinator: Dr. Bernadine S. Chapman, chapmanb@ncat.edu
- Community Counseling Coordinator: Dr. Patricia B. Whitfield, betheap@ncat.edu
- Rehabilitation Counseling Coordinator: Dr. Quintin Boston, qboston@ncat.edu
- School Administration Coordinator: Dr. Michael McIntosh, hdsv@ncat.edu
- School Counseling Coordinator: Dr. Shirlene Smith Augustine, saugusti@ncat.edu
- Proposed PhD in Rehabilitation Counseling Coordinator: Dr. Tyra T. Whittaker, tnwhitta@ncat.edu

D

S

V