Youth Mental Health First Aid
Thursday, November 20, 2014
8:15am-5:00pm

Is being offered as a featured workshop of the Fall Family Counseling Conference “Fostering Families: Connecting Communities”

Use this link to register: https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/NSHCY3G

For additional information about the full conference call 336-334-7916 or visit www.ncat.edu/academics/schools-colleges1/soe

What:
- An evidence-based, educational program about the risk factors and warning signs of mental health problems in youth as well as strategies to help in a crisis.

For Who:
- Laypersons who work with or are regularly around youth (12-18) such as parents, coaches, law enforcement, teachers, school staff, health workers, church leaders and more.

Cost:
Includes Youth Mental Health First Aid Manual and lunch
- $35 Pre-registration
- $50 On-site Registration

Make checks payable and mail to:
Fall Family Counseling Conference
Room 345 Proctor Hall NC A&T State University
1601 E. Market Street, Greensboro, NC 27411
No Credit or Debit Cards Accepted