

My Inventor's Log

My Name: _____ My Teacher: _____

1. What is the importance of studying black inventors?

2. What is the importance of studying inventions and innovations?

3. What is an invention?

4. What is an innovation?

Who, What, When, Where, Why?

5. Who was the black inventor that you studied?

6. What did he or she invent?

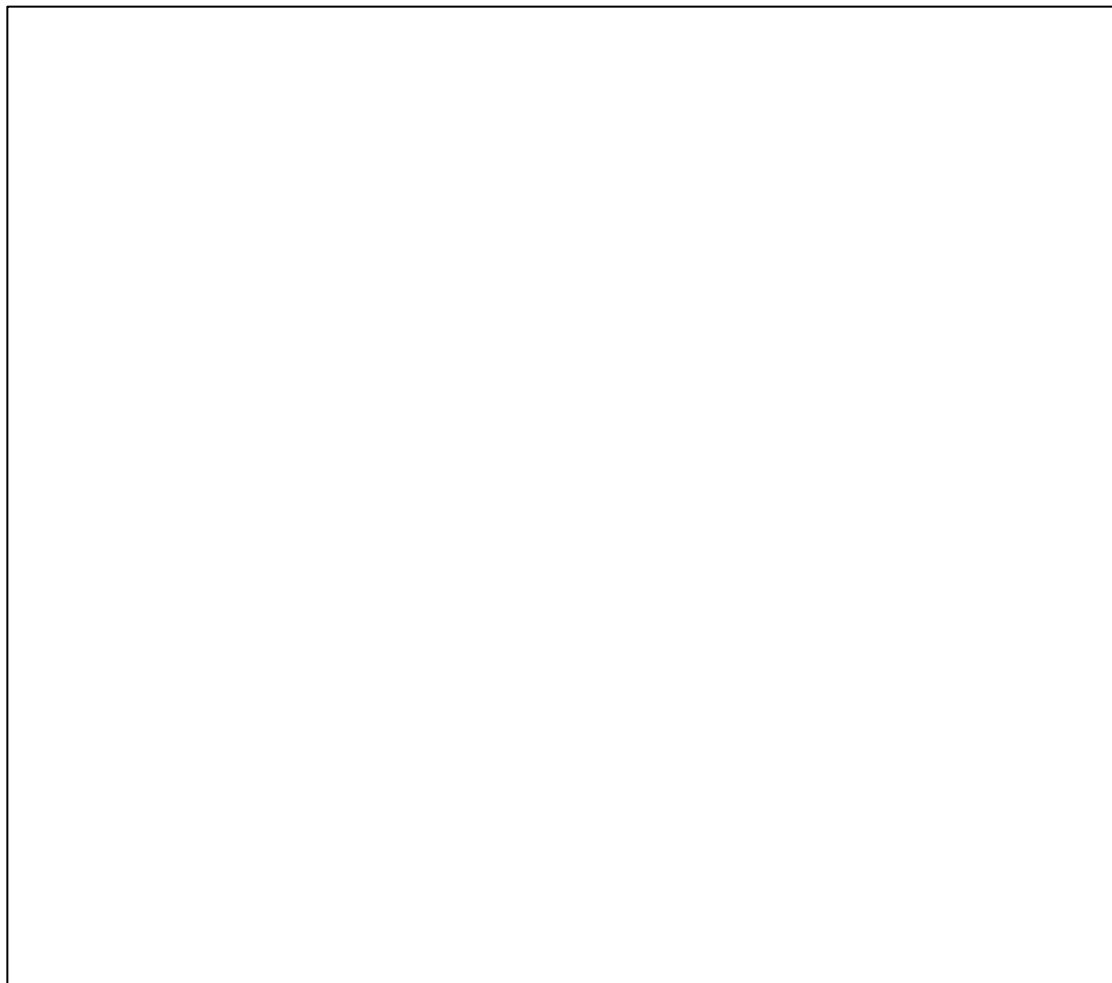

7. When did he or she make the invention?

8. Where was he or she when the invention was made?

9. Why did he or she make the invention?

10. Why was the invention so important to life?

Draw a sketch of the invention.

11. In the space above, draw a sketch of the invention.
12. What geometric shapes are in the invention when you sketch it?

13. Why or why not is it symmetrical?

Innovate.

14. Tell how you will improve the invention that you studied.

15. Sketch your innovation of the invention that you studied.

Cooperation and Learning.

16. Using complete sentences, write about what you did to help your group research black inventors and their inventions.

17. Using complete sentences, write about what you did to help your group design an innovation of the invention that you studied.

18. Using complete sentences, write about what you did to help your group build a model of your innovation.

19. Using complete sentences, write about how much you improved at cooperating with the group.

20. Get ready to tell others about your research and innovation. Use this log and the model to help explain.