

Exit Counseling

All Graduating students who borrowed from the Federal Direct Loan Program, students who have dropped below half-time or cease attending, must complete an exit counseling session to learn about the rights and responsibilities of repaying the loan.

Exit Counseling can be completed at studentloans.gov.