

Certificate in Marriage and Family Counseling

Beginning Fall 2009, the Community Counseling Program will offer a certificate in Marriage and Family Counseling. Community Counseling students who choose the certificate can take their elective courses in the area of Marriage and Family Counseling. This certificate will further prepare students to work in settings that specialize in counseling couples, children, and families.

Certificate Requirements

Required:

- HDSV 754 Advanced Theory in Family Counseling
- HDSV 756 Counseling Couples
- HDSV 774 Counseling Poor and Ethnically Diverse Families

Take Any One of the Following:

- HDSV 753 Counseling Children and Adolescents
- HDSV 757 Special Topics in Marriage and Family Counseling
- HDSV 769 Marriage and Family Counseling in Addictions

(Each course has three (3) hours credit.)

For Additional Information call 334-7916 or Contact:

Dr. Patricia Whitfield, Community Counseling Coordinator, (betheap@ncat.edu)

Room 345 School of Education Building

Dr. Robin Liles (rgliles@ncat.edu)

Room 327 School of Education Building

Dr. David Lundberg (lundberg@ncat.edu)

Room 331 School of Education Building