

Call for Presentation Proposals

For
North Carolina Agricultural & Technical State University's 4th Annual Rehabilitation of Racial & Ethnic Minorities with Behavioral Addictions (REMBA) Conference:

People, Innovation & Progress: Enhancing Addiction Services in Underrepresented Communities April 15-16, 2010

Deadline: Monday, March 1, 2010

Suggested Topics

- Multicultural Issues in Addictions
- Sexual Addictions
- Alcohol & Drug Abuse
- Gambling
- Criminal Behaviors
- Minority Addictions Treatment
- Co-Occurring Disorders
- Best Practices in Addictions
- Ethics in Addictions Treatment
- Vocational Rehabilitation
- Assessment/Testing Practices
- Eating Disorders
- Prevention
- Recovery
- Addictions in K-12 Populations
- Work Adjustment Practices

All proposals should be submitted using the following guidelines:

1. Title of Presentation. Please identify the submission as a poster or breakout session (breakout sessions will last for 60 minutes).
2. Abstract and Presentation description (12 point Times New Roman Font, MS Word, 1 ½ inch margins).
3. Learning objectives.
4. Primary topic(s) addressed.
5. Name & title of lead presenter and name, address, phone and fax numbers, and e-mail address of each presenter.
6. One page vita of the lead presenter.

The conference will take place at The Proximity Hotel •704 Green Valley Road•Greensboro, NC 27408. Presenters are required to pay all fees associated with the conference. Proposals may be e-mailed to Ms. Brandy Baldwin at bbaldwin@ncat.edu or mailed to: Ms. Brandy Baldwin •REMBA Project Coordinator •North Carolina A&T State University •1601 East Market Street •Proctor Hall – 370 •Greensboro, NC 27411 •Phone: 336-285-4383 •Fax 336-334-7280

The REMBA Conference is sponsored by North Carolina A&T State University's MS Rehabilitation Counseling Program's REMBA grant funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Rehabilitation Services Administration Capacity Building Grant.