

NC A&T School of Education
Brief Scholarship Descriptions

NC Teaching Fellows Scholarship/Loan Program

The state of North Carolina awards 500, $26,000.00 scholarship/loans a year to selected high school seniors. These students may choose from 18 colleges and universities in North Carolina to earn their degree in education. Recipients of the funds must teach for four years in the North Carolina public schools or they must pay back the loan plus 10%.

Minimum requirements:

- North Carolina Resident/high school senior
- 3.2 GPA; 900 SAT/20ACT
- Rank in the top 35% of their graduating class

Application Deadline – October 19, 2007

NC A&T School of Education Scholars

The SOE awards between $12-16,000.00 in scholarships each year to incoming freshmen and continuing students. Scholarships in the amount of $1000.00 - $2500.00 are awarded. The students may re-apply each year. These scholarship funds are gifts from alumni and supporters of the School of Education.

Minimum requirements:

- Incoming freshmen 1000 or higher on the SAT; 19 or on higher ACT; minimum 3.0 GPA
- Continuing students must have a 3.2 GPA; admitted to Teacher Education and be a School of Education major

Application will be available in the spring

North Carolina Future Teachers Scholarship/Loan Program

The state of North Carolina awards 200+ $6500.00 scholarships to education majors who are earning degrees in Special Education, Secondary Math or Science. Recipients of the award must teach for two years in North Carolina public schools or pay back the funds, plus 10% interest.

Minimum requirements:

- North Carolina resident
- Admitted to Teacher Education
- GPA 2.8 or higher

Application deadline is set by the state