24. Non-Continuous Enrollment

Please answer the following questions with regard to any school that you have attended (this includes high school, technical institute, college/university).

a. During the school year, have you been out of school for reasons other than routine vacations, disability-related reasons, or school related activities?
   □ Yes  □ No

b. Has it been 3 months or more since you graduated, or since you have been enrolled in school?
   □ Yes  □ No

If you answered yes to either question above, please explain the circumstances below. Please be as thorough and detailed as possible.

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

25. Did you receive a General Education Development (GED) certificate?  □ Yes  □ No

d. Did you receive an Adult High School Diploma?  □ Yes  □ No

* GED (General Educational Development) – Tests measure the outcome of high school education and determines if a student can score at the twelfth grade completion level in language arts — writing, social studies, science, language arts — reading and mathematics. (Offered to students who did not graduate from high school)

* AHSD (Adult High School Diploma) – Adults who did not complete their high school education but earned a high school diploma from a secondary school. An adult may earn a North Carolina Adult High School Diploma by completing twenty (20) units and by passing the North Carolina Competency Test in mathematics and reading. (Offered to students who did not graduate from high school)
25. Campus Safety Questions (Required)
In an effort to maintain a safe learning community, we must ask the following questions of all applicants. For the purpose of the following questions, “crime” or “criminal charge” refers to any crime other than a traffic related misdemeanor or an infraction. You must, however, include any alcohol or drug related offenses whether or not they are traffic related incidents. Answering “yes” to any of the following questions may not necessarily preclude your being admitted. However, failing to answer these questions, or failing to respond completely, accurately, and truthfully, may be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission or to dismiss you after enrollment.

If you answer “yes” to any of these questions, please provide a written explanation that gives the approximate date of each incident, explains the circumstances, and reflects on what you learned from the experience. The university reserves the right to require an additional statement from an appropriate official corroborating your account, either before acting on your application or before permitting you to enroll. Your failure to provide such a statement upon request may be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission or to dismiss you after enrollment.

You are required to notify the university immediately and in writing of any new or pending criminal charge, any disposition of a criminal charge, or any school, college, or university disciplinary action against you, or any type of military discharge other than an honorable discharge, or any non-routine absence from school, that occurs at any time after you submit this application and prior to enrollment. Your failure to do so may be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission or to dismiss you after enrollment.

1. Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any educational institution you have attended from 9th grade (or the international equivalent) forward, whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct that resulted in your probation, suspension, removal, dismissal, or expulsion from the institution?  □ Yes  □ No

2. Have you ever been adjudicated guilty or convicted of a misdemeanor, felony, or other crime?  □ Yes  □ No
   [Note that you are not required to answer “yes” to this question, or provide an explanation, if the criminal adjudication or conviction has been expunged, sealed, annulled, pardoned, destroyed, erased, impounded, or otherwise ordered by a court to be kept confidential.]

3. Do you have any criminal charges pending against you?  □ Yes  □ No

4. Have you entered a plea of no contest or nolo contendere, or an Alford plea, to a misdemeanor, felony, or other criminal charge; or received a deferred prosecution or prayer for judgment continued for such a charge; or otherwise accepted responsibility for such a crime?  □ Yes  □ No

5. Have you received any type of discharge from military service “other than an honorable discharge”?
   □ Yes
   □ No — Never Served
   □ No — Currently Serving
   □ No — Honorably Discharged

6. If your education was or will be interrupted, indicate here and provide details.

RESIDENCY DETERMINATION FOR TUITION PURPOSES

Your residency for tuition purposes determines your in-state or out-of-state status and may impact your admission, tuition, scholarship or financial aid eligibility. North Carolina residency for tuition purposes is governed by North Carolina state law. More information about North Carolina residency for tuition purposes can be found at www.ncresidency.org.

Do you claim to be a North Carolina Resident?

□ Yes  I claim to be a North Carolina resident for tuition purposes.*

□ No    I do not claim North Carolina residency for tuition purposes. I understand I will be charged the non-resident tuition rate if enrolled at a North Carolina state-supported institution.

*If you claim to be a resident, you must complete the residency process with the Residency Determination Service (RDS) at www.ncresidency.org. You will receive a Residency Certification Number (RCN) which should either be entered onto your admissions application or provided directly to your Admissions Office, when available.
