

Rising 6th to 8th Grade Girls Needed for the 2019 STEM ACTIVATED! SUMMER CAMP

“How can we improve minority middle-school girls’ STEM persistence?”

Cost: $200

($150 SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE FOR QUALIFYING APPLICANTS)

Funding Agency: NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HOME BUILDERS (NAHB)

Important Dates: 9:00 am - 4:30 pm (July 8th - July 12th - STEM Summer Camp)

Venue: Room 111 Price Hall, Dept. of Built Environment,
North Carolina A&T State University campus
1601 East Market Street, Greensboro, NC 27411.

Incentive: Lunch, snacks, and rewards will be provided during summer camp;

Qualification: Minority middle-school girls interested in STEM careers;

Application: Request Scholarship Application Documents by sending an email to steamactivated@gmail.com.

This summer camp is conducted under the direction of Dr. Andrea Ofori-Boadu, Assistant Professor with the Department of Built Environment within the College of Science and Technology at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University.