

Congratulations!

NCA&T's Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation

Big Idea Competition

OVERALL WINNERS

Undergraduates

1st Place - $2,000

Jeremy Epps—Mechanical Engineering

Business Idea: Nite Owl (Health Food Restaurant)

2nd Place - $1,000

Jamila Sylvester - Bioengineering

Business Idea: Air Tech (Two Cartridge Inhaler)

3rd Place - $500

Dylan Gunn – Computer Science

Business Idea: Gunn Technologies (Grocery Shopping App)

Graduates

1st Place - $2,000

Jennifer McBride—Energy and Environmental Systems

Business Idea: Xenobeads (Cancer Intervention Technology)

2nd Place - $1,000

Allen McLean – Technology Management

Business Idea: Smart Gun (Technology for tracking shots from handheld firearms)

3rd Place - $500

Spero Gbewonyo - Joint School of Nanoscience & Nanoengineering

Business Idea : Smart Nanocapsules for Jeanswear Dyeing (Technology for Dyeing Cotton Yarns)

