SPRING 2021
COURSE TYPES AND BILLING

For Spring 2021, very specific coding is required for each instructional type. This coding indicates how the course will be taught and determines how the course will be billed. Students enrolling in Spring 2021 courses will have three choices: On Campus Courses, Remote Learning Courses, and Distance Learning Courses. There is a link at the end of this document to access the Tuition and Fees Estimator, which will provide an estimate of your Spring 2021 costs.

COURSE TYPES

1. On Campus Courses (Section numbers are 001, 002, etc.).

Students who enroll in these courses will meet their professors in the classroom, once per week. Each three-credit hour course will meet for 2.5 hours once each week. To maintain social distancing requirements, some courses may assign students to groups so that students will alternate meeting either in the classroom or remotely.

   For classes taught ON CAMPUS, billed as on campus (usually lecture, lab, lecture/lab, seminar)

In Banner SSASECT, it looks like this:

- Campus: M
- Instructional Method: 01

Tuition Cap

a. No Spring 2021 tuition should exceed what it would be, based on 12 credits on the main campus, for undergraduates and 9 credits for graduate students.

b. Use the Tuition and Fees Estimator to determine what your tuition will be for the spring 2021, based on your residency (in-state or out-of-state), your educational level (undergraduate or graduate); or your combination of courses (on campus, remote courses, or online courses). Go to this link to access the Tuition and Fees Estimator.
