Current Use Gift Agreement
JE Dunn Construction Award

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University acknowledges with gratitude the generous commitment of $10,000 from JE Dunn Construction Company (Representative, Jaime Elgas, Vice President, Talent Management) to provide scholarship awards. This fund will be known as JE Dunn Construction Award.

The Donor(s) purpose establishing this scholarship award is to provide support to the Construction Management Program in the College of Science and Technology.

A committee recommended by the Dean of the College of Science and Technology to include the Chairperson of the Built Environment Department and shall have at least one representative from JE Dunn Construction, so long as the final selection rest with the college to choose the recipient(s) for the JE Dunn Construction Award in accordance with University policy. At least $5,000 will be awarded annually based on the following criteria:

- Recipient(s) must be an undergraduate sophomore student who demonstrates sustained academic performance with at least a 3.0 grade point average for this merit award and be majoring in Construction Management and/or Geomatics.
- Recipient(s) holding the JE Dunn Construction Award in one year shall be automatically renewed as long as they continue to meet the requirements as outlined in this agreement.
- The purpose of this scholarship is to support educational diversity in N.C. A&T by giving priority to students who are under-represented in the construction industry in the undergraduate student population.
- Recipient(s) must provide a letter explaining why they would be interested in a career in construction management, along with a resume/CV, unofficial transcript and two letters of recommendation.

Program Support:
- JE Dunn Construction will hire interns from North Carolina A&T State University. Scholarship recipients will have the opportunity to be considered or apply for an internship with JE Dunn Construction.
