Welcome to New Student Orientation at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University!

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, administration, faculty, and staff of our university, I am very excited that you have joined the Aggie family.

We look forward to building a lifelong relationship with you over the coming days and years, and we’re eager to play a role in your transition from student to graduate to successful professional.

The dedicated staff in the Office of New Student Programs is here to assist you with learning about the opportunities to explore our outstanding academic programs, campus, and student life. Faculty advisors are also available to work closely with you to create a comprehensive academic degree plan for your intended major and course of study.

As a preeminent land grant, doctoral, higher research institution, N.C. A&T embraces the wonderful history, traditions, and accomplishments of our rich past. We are committed to providing a learning environment for you that enables a future shaped by our distinguished faculty and staff, who will support your development and provide a technology-enhanced teaching and learning experience.

As you explore the many benefits the university has to offer, I encourage you to remain committed to broadening your horizons and focused on accomplishing your goals. There will be many opportunities for you to participate in enriching activities and intellectually stimulating discussions, as well as local, national, and global initiatives.

I wish you the very best as you strive for excellence throughout this next phase of your journey – because that’s what Aggies DO!

Sincerely,

Harold L. Martin, Sr.
Chancellor
Greetings, Future Aggies!

Welcome to North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University! This is a great time to be a member of the Aggie family! N.C. A&T is an 1890 doctoral land-grant university committed to exemplary teaching and learning, scholarly and creative research and community engagement.

As you embark on your higher education journey, the opportunities are limitless. You can look forward to working with a committed faculty who utilize innovative instructional methods to support student learning and engagement. Professional advisors will assist you in navigating curriculum choices and direct you to key resources to enhance your A&T experience. Specialized student programs are available to address unique areas of interest that will foster academic advancement, personal growth and intellectual development.

While you are here, take time to explore the array of opportunities to prepare for an exciting and productive spring 2017 semester at A&T. Transitioning through the varied options may at times seem overwhelming, but we are here to help as you make important decisions. I strongly encourage you to remain focused on the educational purpose that brought you to this great university and to reach out to your new academic community as questions arise.

On behalf of North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, we congratulate you on your achievements to date, and look forward to your even greater accomplishments as an Aggie!

Sincerely,

Joe B. Whitehead, Jr., Ph.D.
Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
Welcome, New Aggies!

Becoming an Aggie is a unique privilege. The Division of Student Affairs shares your exceptional vision and ambition in all areas of your life, in and outside of the classroom. We believe the best way to promote student success is to engage our students.

We offer all the necessary tools you need to successfully transition to college, explore your creative passions, enhance your academic success, better your personal health, strengthen your connections to the community and prepare you to enter the world as a confident and innovative intellectual leader.

Your personal and professional development is the basis for a partnership that will last during your years here and after you graduate from North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University. I look forward to the opportunity to meet and engage with you in the near future.

On behalf of the Division of Student Affairs, best wishes for a successful academic journey here at N.C. A&T State University.

In the essence of Aggie Pride,

Melody Pierce, Ph.D.
Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs
On behalf of the Office of New Student Programs, we are pleased to welcome you to North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University. The Office of New Student Programs provides quality support services that advance the development of each individual student. Our goal is to make sure you have a wonderful Aggie experience. We encourage independent, academic responsibility and promote the welfare of all students. Ultimately, we help connect students to the university and to their future career paths.

You are making a great start by attending New Student Orientation.

You will find this program informative, reassuring and fun. You will meet our campus partners who are here to help you and provide you with the necessary resources to graduate in a timely fashion. I urge you to retain this orientation guide to refer to the many resources available to you and to call on the university when you need assistance.

Best wishes to you as you start your Aggie Journey at North Carolina A&T State University! Do not hesitate to contact us with any questions or concerns you have throughout your academic career at our university.

Welcome
Welcome to 2017 Spring New Student Orientation!

Orientation is designed to assist you in adjusting to life on campus, exposes you to the university’s many academic opportunities, and introduces you to a wide range of student support services and activities. We hope this will be a rewarding time for you here at North Carolina A&T State University.

Learning Outcomes
Provide students with information and opportunities to explore academic success strategies.
Create a welcoming environment that builds a sense of community among the students and connects them to faculty, staff and other students.
Provide students with an understanding of the advantages of a diverse campus community.
Provide a framework for success through the communication of expectations, norms and standards.
Provide students with an integrated social support system and connection with other students and their families.

Cell Phone Usage
The New Student Programs staff requests that all cell phones are turned to vibrate or off while attending sessions.

Important Reminder
Please make sure all necessary paperwork is complete, including the student financial aid documents, housing assignment and immunization records.

Parking
The Office of New Student Programs requests that you park in one of the following locations:
- Laurel Street (Lot #L1)
- Aggie Suites (Lot #A1)
- Aggie Stadium (Lot #A3)
- Luther/Benbow St. (Lot #L2)
- Obemeyer (Lot 42)
- Parking Deck

Do not park in locations marked “RESERVED.” These parking locations are designated for faculty and staff and violators are subject to parking fines and towing. Please refer to your campus map.

Orientation Evaluation
An evaluation will be available at the end of the orientation session. The information that you provide is used to evaluate the orientation program and improve future sessions. Your experience is extremely important to us.

WELCOME TO AGGIELAND
Welcome to Aggieland

Mascot

How the “bulldog” got to the football game is difficult to speculate. Perhaps a group of students brought him, knowing that there would be some trouble, or perhaps he came along with the herdsmen. The fact was evident that he was very much there (as will be detailed later in the story). It seems that he was tied in order that his viciousness could be kept under surveillance.

The football game was a rough and tumble affair and the Aggies became despondent. The fullback was bursting through the line play after play—even scoring now and then—over the opposition’s defense. But the referee did not seem to think so and called each touchdown back.

Finally, in the last few minutes of the game, the big fullback broke through the opposition's defense and scored a touchdown. A big roar naturally thundered up from the crowd for the Aggies, but when the clamour died down to a hush the referee threw up the sign “No Good.”

At the same time someone untied the bulldog and he tore into the referee. Down on the ground he went and the bulldog began to work him overtime. It almost cost A&T membership in the CIAA, but it vindicated the Aggies. For if ever there had been a howl from the team and fans it was that day when the referee concluded that the team could not do anything right. Since that day the mascot for the A&T football team has been called “Bulldog.”

Alma Mater

Verse I
Dear A&T, Dear A&T, a monument indeed, around thy base with grateful hearts behold thy students kneel. We bless the power that gave thee birth to help us in our need, we'll ever strive while here on earth all loyalty to yield.

Refrain
With joy, with joy, dear A&T, thy students turn from thee to spread thy trophies year by year from Dare to Cherokee.

Verse II
Dear A&T, Dear A&T, the signet thou shalt be, set by our great old commonwealth, proud boaster of the free. She'd have the record of her worth on granite not inscribed—nay, let the children of her birth proclaim it by their lives.

Verse III
Dear A&T, Dear A&T, henceforth our aim shall be, by precepts wise and deeds more sure to bless the State through thee; the arts of industry to wield against an idle foe. A harvest rich from ripened fields or what thy students sow.
Aggie History

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University is a public, doctoral, higher research, 1890 land-grant university committed to exemplary teaching and learning, scholarly and creative research and effective engagement and public service. The university offers degrees at the baccalaureate, master’s and doctoral levels and has a commitment to excellence in a comprehensive range of academic disciplines. Our unique legacy and educational philosophy provide students with a broad range of experiences that foster transformation and leadership for a dynamic and global society.

In 1890, Congress enacted the Second Morrill Act, which mandated “a separate college for the colored race.” The Agricultural and Mechanical College for the Colored Race (now North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University) was established as that college in the state of North Carolina by an act of the General Assembly ratified on March 9, 1891. Originally operating in Raleigh as an annex to Shaw University, the college made a permanent home in Greensboro with the help of citizens such as Dr. DeWitt, C. Benbow and Charles H. Moore.

In 1915, state legislators changed the college’s name to the Agricultural and Technical College of North Carolina; and in 1967, they elevated it to university status. N.C. A&T became a constituent university of the University of North Carolina in 1972.

N.C. A&T has ranked third among the University of North Carolina system’s 17 member institutions in research funding since 2005.

It also generates contracts with major international companies, foundations and federal agencies to secure funding to enhance academic programs and to provide student scholarships.

Core Values

Learning
We embrace a culture that enriches the learning experience, enhances critical thinking, and promotes a desire for life-long personal development.

Excellence
We pursue excellence in all our endeavors.

Integrity
We demonstrate high moral character and ethical behavior.

Respect
We are an inclusive community that values differences in perspectives, ideas, learning styles and cultures.

Creativity
We foster an innovative environment that encourages the rich exchange of ideas, services and resources.

Engagement
We develop vital partnerships that impact the social and environmental challenges of regional, national and global communities.

Service
We proactively respond to the needs of those we serve.

Mission
North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University is an 1890 land-grant doctoral, higher research university dedicated to learning, discovery, and community engagement. The university provides a wide range of educational opportunities from bachelor's to doctoral degrees in both traditional and online environments. With an emphasis on preeminence in STEM and a commitment to excellence in all its educational, research, and outreach programs, North Carolina A&T fosters a climate of economic competitiveness that prepares students for the global society.
Welcome to Aggieland

Aggie Traditions

Homecoming
Welcome to the “Greatest Homecoming on Earth” at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University. Homecoming is a festive time for the university to welcome back its alumni—young and old, near and far—and to celebrate its current student body.

Welcome Week
Welcome Week is the official kick-off to the academic year at North Carolina A&T State University, featuring events to get you ready for an amazing year. Welcome Week is designed to create a meaningful experience for you that will:

- Begin to build a sense of community by encouraging a first-year class identity, fostering institutional pride and respect, acknowledging your individual responsibility to the community, as well as ownership of and responsibility for your college experience.
- Assist you in adjusting to the campus environment and campus life through academic and student development programs that enhance your capacity to lead and work among students from diverse cultural, ethnic, national, socio-economic and religious backgrounds and of different sexual orientations and physical abilities.
- Provide you an opportunity to have and maintain meaningful relationships with students, faculty, staff and surrounding community that will encourage academic and personal success during your first year and throughout your college experience.
- Allow you to navigate the campus while discovering and accessing the multitude of resources and opportunities available at the university that meet the ever-changing and diverse needs of students so you may be intentional in creating a successful college experience.

New Student Convocation/Induction
New Student Convocation is the official welcome for all new first-year students. As the one and only time all members of the class will convene, this event celebrates the incoming class entry into higher education and inducts them into a community of learners at North Carolina A&T State University. New Student Convocation articulates to our newest Aggies the institution’s mission and the expectations to which they will be held during their collegiate career at A&T. Our first-year students will not only realize their identity as a class but be reminded of the privilege they have to change the world for the better as a member of the Aggie Nation.

Attendance at New Student Convocation/Induction is required of all first-year students. Family members of our new students are welcome to attend.

New Student Institute (NSI)
The NSI is a rigorous program that occurs prior to the first day of fall classes. It prepares new students for their collegiate journey! Campus administrators, faculty, staff and students participate in this extended orientation program that allows students to build and develop their toolkit with knowledge, advice and skills that will ensure their academic success at North Carolina A&T State University.

Annual Ronald E. McNair Celebration January 27, 2017
The annual Ronald E. McNair Commemorative Celebration is designed to commemorate the life and accomplishments of the late Dr. Ronald E. McNair, an alumnus of North Carolina A&T State University.

We look forward to seeing all professionals, students and affiliates of TRiO and other STEM related programs and advocates for first-generation students being in attendance. Here is what you can expect as an attendee.

- Professional exposure
- Cutting-edge research presentations and workshops
- Poster presentations
- Global visibility through the N.C. A&T TRiO networks and STEM programs
- Engaging atmosphere cultivating growth and development
- Networking opportunities

N.C. A&T Annual February One February 1, 2017
Celebration Breakfast is an event that occurs on the first of February each year. On Feb. 1, 1960, in Greensboro, North Carolina, four A&T freshmen (Franklin McCain, Ezell Blair Jr. [Jibreel Khazan], David Richmond and Joseph McNeil) walked downtown and “sat in” at the whites-only lunch counter at Woolworth’s and refused to leave when denied service. These four young men forever changed the course of history by their bravery and courage.

Vision Statement

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University is a learner-centered community that develops and preserves intellectual capital through interdisciplinary learning, discovery, engagement and operational excellence, that prepares students for the global society.
On February 1, 1960, in Greensboro, North Carolina, four A&T freshmen, Ezell Blair Jr. (Jibreel Khazan), Franklin McCain, Joseph McNeil and David Richmond walked downtown and “sat-in” at the whites-only lunch counter at Woolworth’s. They refused to leave when denied service and stayed until the store closed.

Legacy
Jibreel Khazan recounts that “…on Sunday night, Jan. 31, 1960, we decided we were going to request equal service for all Americans at F.W. Woolworth’s lunch counter on Monday, Feb. 1, 1960.”

These students’ courageous stand helped leverage historic progress in the civil rights movement:

- The Interstate Commerce Commission ruling in September 1961 against racial segregation on interstate carriers and terminals.
- The first National Public Accommodations Act in 100 years (Khazan 2004).

The legacy of these four heroes proves the true potential and appeal of nonviolence. It was their protest that became the model and inspiration for later civil rights, anti-war and women’s liberation movements. These four young men forever changed the course of history with their bravery and courage.

Chronology of the Sit-In Events that occurred as a result of this bold action by these four young men included:

- February 2, 1960: 25 other students from A&T and other Greensboro colleges and universities joined them.
- During the next 10 days: students across the state participated in similar sit-ins.
- By the third week of February 1960: demonstrations had spread to at least 250 major cities and towns in the U.S. where over 400 demonstrations took place by the end of 1960.
- End of July 1960: Woolworth’s was desegregated.

Getting Connected

Student Development
The Office of Student Development, a unit within the Division of Student Affairs at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, takes pride in educating, training, mentoring and developing exceptional individuals who value service. In order to meet these goals, the Office of Student Development leads by example and strives to meet the challenges of an ever-changing global society.

This office partners with the university and neighboring community in creating co-curricular, leadership and community service learning opportunities that enhance undergraduate and graduate degree programs offered at North Carolina A&T State University. Those best practices are enhanced by activities that extend beyond the classroom in areas such as workshops, cultural events, professional development, travel, leadership development, community engagement and service learning. We are committed to supporting every student’s goals and those established by our university—through the A&T Preeminence 2020 strategic plan—which will encourage students to explore, discover and ultimately become renowned individuals dedicated to excellence.

Whether a student wants to be an academic scholar, student leader, community activist, servant leader or artistic entrepreneur, the Office of Student Development can and will assist in finding an opportunity to meet these needs and reach his or her goals as a global citizen. That is why our motto is, “Students are why we are here.”

Student Center
The Student Center is the community hub of the university, serving students, faculty, staff, alumni and visitors. It provides services and conveniences that members of the college community need in their daily lives and creates an environment for getting to know and understand others through formal and informal associations. For more information, please visit the Student Center website at http://www.ncat.edu/student-affairs/student-services/student-center/

Intercollegiate Athletics
Mission
Consistent with the mission statement of the university to provide an intellectual environment where students develop a sense of identification, belonging, responsibility and achievement that prepares them for leadership and service in regional, national and global communities, the Department of Athletics provides a comprehensive program of intercollegiate competition as an integral part of the total educational experience for all students.

Embracing the principles of competitive excellence, sportsmanship, diversity, ethical conduct and amateurism while facilitating the academic objectives of student-athletes, the department complies with all conference and association rules and regulations, and ensures equal opportunity and access for all students and staff who desire to associate with intercollegiate athletics without regard for race, color, national origin, gender, age, disability or religion.

North Carolina A&T has an athletics department that is rich in history. All 14 intercollegiate varsity programs square off against some of the finest competition in the nation. Over time, the Aggies have captured Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) titles in football, baseball, bowling, women's basketball, and men's outdoor track.

Campus Recreation Center
Campus Recreation is to provide a broad and diversified program of sports and activities that meet the needs and interests of the entire campus community. These activities are organized and administered in a manner that is intended to provide a recreational break from academic pursuits, improve physical health, and develop skills and interests that contribute to healthy lifestyles. The greatest opportunity lies in fostering personal growth through competition, self-testing and teamwork that is found in participating in recreational sports.

A&T Register
The A&T Register is the student newspaper for the campus of North Carolina A&T State University. The A&T Register was first published in 1894. The newspaper is located in room 328 of the General Classroom Building and publishes most Wednesdays during the academic year. Over the years, the staff has won numerous awards and the A&T Register is regarded as one of the best HBCU newspapers in the country.

The A&T Register accepts advertising for its print and online editions. The newspaper also publishes an annual fall welcome guide for incoming students. Please call 336-334-7700 or email atregister@yahoo.com for information. For publication information and to send press releases, please email theatregister@gmail.com.
Student Activities

The Student Activities and Campus Involvement Office at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University is more than just a place. Student Activities serves as a guide for N.C. A&T students in molding and creating their Aggie Pride experience.

We believe that student involvement outside of the classroom contributes to important learning gains and a holistic, well rounded college experience that prepares students for life after graduation.

The Student Activities and Campus Involvement Office hopes to serve as a catalyst to engage and involve students by:

- Providing advisement, training and mentoring to student leaders and advisors
- Inspiring students to become active members of the campus community
- Creating programs that foster interactions among the diverse members of the university community
- Maintaining lively spaces and resources for student-focused initiatives that enrich our campus culture
- Designing and supporting programs, venues and resources that cultivate student expression
- Engaging student leaders to discover new knowledge that will aid them in critical evaluation
- Making informed judgments, balancing multiple perspectives and acting with integrity

The various departments within the Student Activities and Campus Involvement Office are Student Government Association, Student University Activities Board, Council of Presidents, Greek Life and Honda Campus All-Star Challenge. For additional information visit the Student Activities website at www.ncat.edu/student-affairs/student-services/student-activities.

All students are encouraged to register with OCS and actively take advantage of the services offered. Its centralized, comprehensive and progressive programs, services and resources are tailored to serve as a gateway for enhancement of the skills necessary to keep Aggies competitive in the workplace. OCS is available to students, either by visiting the office in Murphy Hall, suite 101, or online at www.ncat.edu/careerservices.

Counseling Services
Counseling Services, an International Association of Counseling Services (IACS) accredited unit in the Division of Student Affairs, offers a variety of services to help all currently enrolled North Carolina A&T State University students address challenges and difficulties they may face during their college years. Our services are designed to help students understand themselves better, create and maintain healthy relationships, improve their academic performance and make satisfying career and life choices. We are dedicated to helping our students by providing brief counseling from a wide spectrum of services. Those include individual and group counseling, outreach and consultation, training and supervision, teaching, psychological testing, and research. If more intensive or specialized care is needed, we will assist with making referrals to healthcare providers in the community.

For more information, contact us at 336-334-7727 or visit our website www.ncat.edu/student-affairs/student-services/counseling/index.html

Housing and Residence Life
Housing and Residence Life creates a “home away from home” where students are individually and collectively challenged and supported in the journey to become mature, contributing citizens in a global community.

We provide management, resources, and systems which uphold the mission of North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University. We support the university’s mission by encouraging students to live, think, and succeed by integrating diversity, integrity, and community accountability through cultivation of unity and Aggie Pride.

New students will receive their housing assignment after they have completed the housing application and New Student Orientation. Residence Halls will open on January 6, 2017. To apply for housing, complete the application at http://www.ncat.edu/student-affairs/housing/students/application/application-new.html.
The Multicultural Student Center

The Multicultural Student Center (MSC) at North Carolina A&T State University serves to promote academic and personal growth of traditionally underserved students, work with the entire campus to create an institutional and community climate of justice, promote access and equity in higher education and offer programs that educate the campus about diversity. In addition, we assist the institution in developing shared goals and creating a sense of common community that serves all constituents fairly and equitably.

N.C. A&T offers all students a unique educational setting that feels immediately welcoming to most students, faculty and staff. However, recognizing that there are some members of our community who may feel alienated for any number of reasons — ethnicity, country of origin, sexual orientation, language, or other life circumstances — the MSC seeks to help all diverse student communities feel welcome so that they may benefit from their N.C. A&T experience and enrich the whole community.

The MSC supports independent expression of all multicultural groups, while promoting collective experiences within the N.C A&T community.

The MSC maintains an open-door policy encouraging individuals and organizations to come by and use our resources or to discuss issues they may have concerning their N.C. A&T experience.

For more information contact us at www.ncat.edu/student-affairs/student-services/multicultural/index.html

Veteran and Disability Support Services

The Office of Veteran and Disability Support Services (OVDSS) is an integral unit of the Division of Student Affairs. We guide and direct our students by providing and promoting events, services, etc. that increase their skills to enhance intellectual, cognitive, social, personal and physical competencies. The office also works with students, faculty and staff to promote the students’ independence to ensure recognition of their abilities for total development.

OVDSS assists all students with documented disabilities and medical conditions that need services and/or accommodations to participate in the academic programs at N.C. A&T State University.

Additionally, the office also meets the needs of our students who are veterans, service members, or veteran dependents. We process and certify their benefits enrollment throughout each academic year; meeting the needs of students who receive educational benefits from the U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs for all eligible enrolled U.S. Veterans, National Guardsmen, Reservists and their eligible dependents.

OVDSS provides services and support to our students out of two locations: Disability Support Services is located in Murphy Hall, Suite 01 and Veteran Support Services is located in the Aggie Student Veteran Center at the Oaks. Hours of operations are Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–5 p.m. We can be reached at 336-334-7765 or at 336-398-8651 or by email at veterans@ncat.edu and disasupp@ncat.edu.

Student Health Center

The North Carolina A&T State University Student Health Center extends a warm welcome to our incoming students for the Spring 2017 semester. We are located at 112 North Benbow Road across from the Campus Recreation Center.

The services offered by the N.C. A&T Student Health Center include:

- General Medical Care
- Immunizations
- Health and Wellness Education
- X-ray capability
- Psychiatric Care
- A Full Service Pharmacy
- Comprehensive Laboratory
- Life Style Services: Massage Therapy and Acupuncture

We want our students to recognize the importance of preventive health care and encourage them to take advantage of the services offered at the N.C. A&T Student Health Center. All members of our medical and professional staff are trained, licensed and certified in their respective fields. We see patients by appointment and on a walk-in basis.

Students are required to have health insurance to attend all University of North Carolina system institutions. N.C. A&T State University students must provide proof of adequate insurance coverage if they are taking six or more on-campus credit hours. All international students are required to carry approved insurance. The Student Health Center presently accepts most insurance carriers that serve our student body.

We are open Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–9 p.m. To schedule an appointment, you can call (336) 334-7880 or visit https://ncat.medicationconnect.com through the Student Portal.

To save time, you can complete your pre-visit intake form prior to your appointment. We invite you to come by and visit us. Your health prevention, maintenance, and education are our primary focus. All health form must be on file prior to your enrollment.
New Student Programs
The Office of New Student Programs strives to assist new students and their families in making a successful academic and social transition to the university setting by providing useful, and timely information that focuses on the resources the university offers as well as a complete understanding of the factors that impact student success. In order to achieve our primary goal of assisting first-year and transfer students in making a successful transition, the Office of New Student Programs utilizes a theoretical orientation and transitional program that focuses specifically on college student development while incorporating best practices and research findings in the fields of orientation, transition, retention and academic success.

Student Financial Aid

The Office of Student Financial Aid is committed to assisting students with financial assistance and options to attend the University. Financial aid comes in several forms: Grants and scholarships that are not repaid, Federal Work Study which allow you to earn funds while attending the University and loans which must be repaid with interest.

To receive federal, state and some institutional funds, students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid at www.fafsa.ed.gov. The North Carolina A&T State University College Code is 002905.

The staff in the Office of Student Financial Aid is dedicated to working with each student to achieve his or her educational goals. Please do not hesitate to call, email or stop by the office for answers to your questions or other assistance. Additional information on financial aid may be obtained at www.ncat.edu/admissions/financial-aid/index.html.

Checklist for a Successful Financial Aid Process

Listed below are items that should be reviewed and completed prior to registration in August. The majority of the forms needed may be found on our website at www.ncat.edu/admissions/financial-aid/forms/index.html.

APPLYING

1. Parents and students must apply for a FSA ID at www.fsaid.ed.gov. After obtaining the FSA ID, students and parents can complete the FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

2. If selected for verification, update your FAFSA information using the IRS Data Retrieval and submit all requested documents timely.

3. Complete and submit the Student Information Release Form. The Office of Student Financial Aid, as well as other offices, will not discuss or release information to your parents and others unless you have granted approval by completing the Student Information Release Form. The form should be returned to the Registrar’s Office.

AWARDED

1. Review, accept, reduce or decline financial aid award on Aggie Access

All students must accept, decline or reduce their financial aid on Aggie Access. Direct Loan for new students will not be disbursed until 30 days after classes have begun and the loan is accepted on Aggie Access.

2. If awarded and accepting the Federal Direct Loan, complete the On-line Entrance Counseling Session

All first-time loan borrowers attending N.C. A&T State University must complete an Entrance Counseling session on-line at www.studentloans.gov.

3. Electronically sign your Master Promissory Note, if you are accepting the Federal Direct Loan

All first-time loan borrowers must electronically sign their Master Promissory Note on-line at www.studentloans.gov.

4. Notify the Office of Student Financial Aid of any outside resources awarded Students receiving outside scholarships or other assistance should forward documentation of the award to the Office of Student Financial Aid. Please ensure that your Banner ID is on all correspondence.

5. Read ‘Understanding Your Award’

Be sure that you read and understand the conditions of your award by reading Understanding Your Award.

6. Complete an Authorization to Use Federal Title IV Funds

Complete and submit the Authorization to Use Federal Title IV Funds form to the Treasurer’s Office.

7. Complete and submit Direct Deposit Authorization Form

Students should complete and submit a Direct Deposit Authorization Form to receive refunds, federal work study pay, stipend payments, etc. Students who do not have the Direct Deposit Form on file will have any expected payments mailed to their home address.

FEDERAL WORK-STUDY AWARDS

If you are awarded Federal Work Study, you must attend a Federal Work Study session in August. A list of workshop days, time and place will be forwarded to you via email.

OTHER FINANCIAL AID OPTIONS

1. Parent of a dependent student can apply for a Plus Loan to cover any unpaid balance

Another option available to students and parents to assist with paying the balance due to the university is the Parent PLUS Loan for dependent students.
• Interested parents must apply for the Federal Direct Loan online at www.studentloans.gov.
• A credit check is performed on PLUS Loan applicants. Requested amount cannot exceed the Cost of Attendance minus financial aid awarded.
• Approved borrower must electronically sign a Master Promissory note at www.studentloans.gov.
• If the PLUS is denied, the student is automatically eligible for up to $4,000 in an additional Unsubsidized Loan.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1. Review your loan disclosure statement
Students who borrow through the Federal Direct Loan program should receive a loan disclosure statement in the mail. The disclosure statement lists the estimated date of disbursement to the university. This is not the refund date nor is it the exact date that the loan funds will be credited to your account.

2. Periodically check AggieAccess and NCAT email for updated information
It is recommended that you regularly check AggieAccess and your NCAT email account for missing documents, awards, messages and information from various offices.

3. Check enrollment status
Most financial aid is awarded based on full-time status (12 hours or more). It is your responsibility to ensure that you are enrolled in the appropriate number of hours. Aid will be adjusted after the add/drop period, if you are not enrolled as full-time.

4. Departmental scholarships
If you are receiving a departmental scholarship and it is not listed on your award letter, your award will be updated once the scholarship information is received in the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Mon., Wed., Thur., Fri.: 8 a.m.–5 p.m. • Tues.: 8 a.m.–5:30 p.m.

TuitionPay Plan
The University offers monthly tuition payment plan options through the Treasurer’s Office. For additional information on the monthly tuition payment plan options please visit: http://www.ncat.edu/divisions/business-and-finance/comptroller/treasurer/pay-plans/index.html

Alternative student loans
Borrowing through an Alternative Loan Program is another option available to students who still need money to assist with meeting the cost to attend the university. This should be the last resource that students and parents consider. Students are encouraged to seek all other options before borrowing an Alternative Loan.

Things to consider before borrowing an alternative loan:
• Various lenders offer alternative loans to students.
• You should be aware that alternative loans carry a higher interest rate than your Federal Direct Loan.
• The alternative loan is based on credit.
• The borrower may also need a credit worthy co-signer.
• Fewer options to reduce or postpone payments. Required to repay the loan as stated in the repayment schedule.
• Less flexible repayment options
• May have a variable interest rates that can rise when interest rates rise during the life of the loan – which can substantially increase the payments.
• Cannot consolidate with Federal Loans.

Office of the Registrar
The Office of the Registrar provides an array of services to students, faculty, administration, staff and the general public. Some of these services include:

Issuing official transcripts
Preparing and disseminating the academic calendar and the final examination schedule
Processing undergraduate readmission applications
Certifying degrees of undergraduate students ensuring the successful completion of all requirements for graduation

All correspondence from the Office of the Registrar will be sent to the student’s NCAT email account. Students are responsible for checking their NCAT email account.
Aggie Alert!

AggieAlert! is one of N.C. A&T State university’s emergency notification systems. AggieAlert! is used to disseminate text messages to mobile devices and email messages to registered users. AggieAlert! complements the existing communications strategy used by the university to distribute emergency information that includes but is not limited to the university’s website, university-issued email addresses, WNAA 90.1 FM radio, local media and social media. To view a comprehensive list, go to http://www.ncat.edu/about/leadership/chancellor/university-relations/alert.html. Note: You must Register for AggieAlert! before registering for courses.

University Police Department

The mission of the University Police Department is to be proactive in the quest to reduce the opportunity for crime, accidents and loss of individual and institutional property, through investigative processes and improve the frequency of apprehension of those responsible. To assist in accomplishing this mission, our primary philosophy in the way we operate, is based on continuous interaction with the community and problem solving techniques.

We envision a partnership with North Carolina A&T State University community and visitors to help detect, prevent and solve crime. We envision a quality service-oriented agency with the ability to confront challenges and obstacles with knowledge and an extremely high level of professionalism. We envision a motivated department that displays unquestionable integrity. We envision providing timely and proficient service to faculty, staff, students and visitors. We envision a commitment to excellence.

Summer Sessions and Continuing Education

The Summer College and the Continuing Education offices serve all academic units of the university by providing support services to degree seeking as well as non-degree seeking students. In addition to our traditional students, our offices assist visiting students from other universities, working professionals, and members of the community at large. The offices work in close cooperation with the Distance Learning office, other university offices and the academic colleges to offer credit and non-credit courses.

International Affairs

The office of International Affairs is responsible for developing and implementing policies, protocols, and centralized programs for students and faculty in support of the University’s mission to enhance global awareness, education abroad, and acculturation both at home and abroad. The office serves incoming international students, exchange students, visiting scholars and foreign national faculty and researchers. The office is also responsible for supporting learning abroad opportunities for both students and faculty through exchanges, faculty-led programs and the management of agreements with overseas institutions.

In collaboration with the Liberal Studies Department and the Center for Academic Excellence (CAE) the office supports the nationally recognized Global Studies Certificate Program. The program offers undergraduate students the opportunity to combine degree related coursework, at least two (2) study abroad session and many opportunities for developing and exercising global awareness and cultural competence. Students are recognized with the Global Studies Certificate and an international stole at graduation.

Study Abroad promotes the university’s commitment to make globally competent and culturally aware citizens of its diverse and growing student population. The intent reaches across all disciplines and departments where studying abroad may be embedded in academic courses or offered during spring break. Options include bi-lateral exchange programs, third party and direct study abroad programs and faculty-led programs. These programs range from two weeks to one semester or even an entire academic year. With credit and non-credit possibilities, students can participate in research, service learning and internship openings around the world – some even funded by scholarships and grants.
Campus Enterprises
Campus Enterprises is a visible support unit on the campus providing essential services to students, faculty, staff, parents and visitors. Campus Enterprises is comprised of the university’s self-supporting entities. The strategic goal of Campus Enterprises encompasses achieving operational excellence, generating revenue and providing outstanding customer service satisfaction. The department serves a vast and diverse customer-base that consists of seven functional units: the Convenience Store (C-Store), Dining Services, Aggie OneCard, University Bookstore, Ticket Office, Mail Center and Parking & Transportation Services. Visit us at www.ncat.edu/divisions/business-and-finance/ce/ or call us at 336-334-7876. Please follow us @ncatcampusent, for additional information. Our services include: postage stamps, mailing and shipping supplies, UPS shipping, and all USPS services (except money orders and registered mail). We accept cash, Aggie OneCard, checks, and debit/credit cards. The Mail Center is conveniently located in Brown Hall on the lower level. The hours of operation are 9 a.m.–5 p.m. For additional information contact us at 336-334-7544 or mailcenter@ncat.edu.

Aggie OneCard
The Aggie OneCard is your ‘passport’ to many services on campus. It is the official university identification card but not limited to meal plans, door access, laundry services, and access into athletic events. Students are expected to carry their University ID card at all times while on campus. For additional information, visit us at card@ncat.edu or 336-334-7114. Our office is located in the Aggie Dome.

Dining Services
Dining on campus provides the social experience essential to campus life. It gives you the opportunity to engage with friends, take study breaks, relax and unwind after a hard day of classes and activities. Come relax with Aggie Dining and enjoy comfort, convenience and outstanding food all designed especially for you. For more information, contact us at www.ncatdining.com.

University Bookstore (Barnes & Noble)
Conveniently located in Brown Hall, the campus bookstore is your official on campus store for all course materials and Aggie gear! Don’t see it? Let us know and we will order it! Rent, buy used, new or digital textbooks in store or online. We have saved students over $1 million by offering a variety of options in academic materials. Shop in store, online: ncat.bncollege.com, through Aggie Access or our mobile App. Follow us: facebook.com/NCATBookstore, Twitter @ncatbookstore and Instagram @ncatbookstorebn.

University Ticket Office
The University Ticket Office is located in Brown Hall. It is the central outlet for information about the ticketing of athletic events, student events, arts and cultural events on campus. Aggie OneCard allows current enrolled students access into all home athletic events. For more information, contact us at 336-334-7749 or visit www.ncataggies.com.

Parking Services
All students must purchase and properly display a valid NC A&T parking permit at all times when parked on University property. It is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with campus parking rules and regulations.

Any student, faculty, staff or visitor who parks a motor vehicle on any property owned, leased or operated by the University must purchase and display a valid NC A&T parking permit.

All students with 30 or more completed credit hours are eligible to park a vehicle on campus. Incoming freshman residing on campus are not permitted to purchase a permit or park on campus until their second semester with a GPA of 3.2 or better.

For additional information, contact us at ncatpark@ncat.edu or call (336) 285-2027. Our office is located at the Obermeyer Parking Deck.

Campus Shuttle and Transportation
The Aggie Shuttle operates during the fall and spring semesters, except during class breaks and holidays when the university is closed. For more information about Campus Shuttle, please visit www.ncat.edu and search for Parking Services. Download the DoubleMap App on your mobile device for real-time tracking.

Need a ride off campus? Swipe your Aggie OneCard to utilize the Higher Education Area Transit (HEAT) shuttle service through our partnership with the Greensboro Transit Authority (GTA). Explore services and routes by visiting www.rideheat.com.

Center for Academic Excellence

Dr. Regina Williams Davis, Assistant Provost for Student Success and Academic Support, Director of CAE

Regina Brooks Artis, Assistant Director, Academic Advising

Leslie Rowls, Assistant Director, Student Athlete Academic Enhancement Program (SAAEP)

Torrey M. Burden, Academic and Instructional Support Programs Coordinator

The Center for Academic Excellence (CAE) is a full-service learning support unit designed to assist all university students in reaching high levels of academic achievement. Located on the third floor of the Academic Classroom Building (ACB), CAE has classrooms and designated areas for tutoring, student success events, supplemental instruction (SI) sessions, student athlete study hall and other programs that help students navigate through our institution. Additionally, CAE is comprised of a dedicated staff of professional academic coaches that utilize proactive academic advising practices to help students along their path to degree attainment.

The mission of CAE is to equip students with success skills and learning support that will help them to:

- CHART efficient learning paths
- ACHIEVE their academic goals and
- BECOME productive citizens and global contributors to society

CAE provides an array of student support services which include:

- Proactive Academic Advising
- Tutorial Support
- Supplemental Instruction
- Mentoring Programs
- Career Assessments
- Academic Skills Building
- Student Success Events
- Student Athlete Academic Enhancement Program (SAAEP)
- The Freshman Seminar, College Success course (FRST 101)

The Center for Academic Excellence welcomes all students in need of advising assistance, information or services to ensure academic success. Help is available by appointment and on a walk-in basis.

Need to Locate Your Academic Advisor?
All students at North Carolina A&T State University have an assigned academic advisor. The goal of the advising relationship is to guide the student toward accepting responsibility for his/her own learning and academic decision-making. Students should meet with their academic advisor at least three times during each semester to discuss major career options, academic progress, internship opportunities and course selection.

Here are some quick tips on locating your academic coach or faculty advisor:

1. Students with an undeclared status are advised by professional academic coaches in the Center for Academic Excellence. All academic coaches are located in the Academic Building. For questions visit the administrative suite on the third floor for assistance or call 336-285-4088.

2. Students who have declared a major are advised by departmental faculty advisors in their college or college. Visit your department for questions regarding your assigned faculty advisor.

3. Schedule an appointment during first week of college to meet with your academic coach or your faculty advisor.

Additional Resources
N.C. A&T’s main source for scholastic assistance is the Center for Academic Excellence, which works cooperatively with each college to ensure your academic success. You can access free tutoring and mentoring in math, science and writing. Students can also benefit from academic advising including about how to choose a major and receive guidance on career direction.

The pursuit of knowledge and the demands of rigorous study can be challenging for many students, but N.C. A&T is committed to your academic and long-term achievement.

Army ROTC—The Aggie Battalion
Army—N.C. A&T is a host college for six other universities for students interested in participating in the Army’s Reserve Officers’ Training Corps (ROTC) program. The Aggie Battalion is responsible for training college students from the Greater Greensboro area universities to become the future leaders of tomorrow’s Army. The Aggie Battalion enables outstanding college cadets to compete to become either Reserve/National Guardsmen or active commissioned officers in varying career fields throughout the U.S. Army. Browse our website, www.ncat.edu/divisions/academic-affairs/rotc/army/, to get a clearer picture of what the Aggie Battalion may offer you. STRENGTH, HONOR, DISCIPLINE.

Air Force—The Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) is an educational program designed to provide theoretical and applied leadership experience to become an Air Force officer while completing your bachelor’s degree. AFROTC offers two primary routes to receive an Air Force commission—the four-year or three-year program. The goal is to commission second lieutenants into the Air Force, after evaluating leadership characteristics and ensuring Air Force ROTC and degree requirements are completed. Air Force ROTC will help you develop both leadership skills and self-confidence and give opportunities to compete for Air Force ROTC scholarships. New students interested in more information about N.C. A&T Air Force ROTC Detachment 605 may visit www.ncat.edu/divisions/academic-affairs/rotc/airforce/New%20Students.html.

Cooperative Education
Cooperative Education (Co-op) is a structured method program that offers students the opportunity to alternate periods of academic study with periods of work closely related to their major field of study. The combination of academic study and work produces an overall learning experience that gives greater meaning to students’ studies and more direction to career development.
Undergraduate Standards of Academic Standing

Undergraduate students are considered to be in good academic standing if they meet satisfactory academic progress, as defined by the curriculum of the student’s major, and the following minimum grade point average (GPA) criteria:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credit Hours Attempted at N.C. A&amp;T Plus Credit Hours Transferred</th>
<th>Minimum Grade Point Average</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>13 or more</td>
<td>2.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

North Carolina A&T State University defines satisfactory academic progress as the completion of 67 percent of attempted and transferred credit hours.

North Carolina General Statute Section 116-143.7 requires a 50 percent tuition surcharge to be added to a student’s tuition bill when the number of attempted and transferred credit hours exceeds 140 hours. No surcharge will be imposed on any student who exceeds the degree credit hour limits within the equivalent of four academic years of regular term enrollment. The calculation of the 140 attempted credit hours will exclude hours earned through the College Board’s Advanced Placement (AP) and College Level Examination Program (CLEP). Those hours earned through institutional advanced placement, course validation and attempted hours during summer terms are also excluded from the tuition surcharge calculation.

Students are expected to be aware of their academic standing and academic progress toward their degree (compliance with their curriculum, attempted hours and earned credit hours) at all times. For guidance purposes, normal progress toward graduating in four years requires students to earn 15–16 credit hours toward their declared major per semester, as outlined in the related curriculum guide.

Dean’s List

To encourage academic excellence, the university publishes a Dean’s List at the end of each fall and spring semester. A full-time undergraduate student, who has earned a minimum of 12 semester hours and whose semester GPA (grade point average) is 3.00 or higher shall be eligible for the Dean’s List for that semester. A student is not eligible for the Dean’s List in any semester in which he/she receives a grade of “D” or “F.” Dean’s List recognition shall be noted on the student’s permanent academic record.

Graduating with Honors

Undergraduate degree candidates who complete all requirements for graduation in accordance with the following stipulations earn the following honors:

a) Those students who maintain an adjusted GPA between 3.25 and 3.49 will receive recognition as CUM LAUDE,

b) Those students who maintain an adjusted GPA between 3.50 and 3.74 will receive recognition as MAGNA CUM LAUDE, and

c) Those students who maintain an adjusted GPA between 3.75 and 4.00 will receive recognition as SUMMA CUM LAUDE.

All course hours attempted, excluding “W” (withdrawal grades), are included in the adjusted grade point average computation for honors. For example, if a course was repeated, both grades are used in the adjusted grade point average computation.

Undergraduate students must earn at least 70 semester hours of resident credit at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University to qualify for graduation honor designations.

This policy is effective on and after May 15, 2012, and applies only to all new students entering A&T thereafter.

Add and Drop Period

Adding Courses: Courses may be added during the first five class days of a fall or spring semester. Courses may be added during the first two class days of a summer session.

Dropping Courses: Courses may be dropped during the first five class days of a fall or spring semester. Courses may be dropped during the first two class days of a summer session.

Official student enrollment is represented by the number of hours in which a student is enrolled at the end of the fifth day of classes in a fall or spring semester and at the end of the second day of classes in a summer session.

This date corresponds with the last day to drop courses and receive financial credit. Students wishing to drop all courses after this date must follow the university’s withdrawal procedure.

All add/drop transactions must be completed by the official close of business on the last day to add/drop classes. If there are university-wide extenuating circumstances that prevent interaction with the web-based student information system, an extension of the add/drop deadline will be established.
Repetition of Courses and Grade Forgiveness
An undergraduate student may only repeat a course in which they earned a grade of “C-” or lower if it is a prerequisite course requiring a minimum grade of “C”, or if a minimum grade of “C” is a requirement in the student’s declared major. Students will not receive additional credit hours for repeated courses in which they originally earned a passing grade. Students who do not receive a passing grade in a course may repeat that course. For courses repeated subsequent to the effective date of this policy, a student may repeat any number of distinct courses totaling a maximum of sixteen (16) credit hours.

No single undergraduate course may be repeated more than two times to include withdrawals (Ws), for a maximum of three attempts. No single graduate course may be repeated more than one time, to include withdrawals (Ws), for a maximum of two attempts. All grades received will be recorded on the student’s permanent academic record. For repeats of courses subsequent to the effective date of this policy, any undergraduate student who has exhausted their three attempts and has not passed a required course in their major field of study will be dismissed from that major. The university may accept transfer credit for undergraduate General Education core requirement courses.

Students may seek grade forgiveness for repeated courses. Only the initial repeat attempt of a single course will be excluded from GPA calculations. On a third attempt, the two most recent grades will be used in computing the GPA.

The student must submit a completed course repeat form to the Office of the Registrar indicating which courses should be considered for grade forgiveness under this policy.

The course repeat form must be submitted no later than the last day of the final examination period during the semester in which the course is being repeated.

Financial aid implications for repeated courses should be discussed with the Office of Financial Aid.

Withdrawal from an Individual Course
A student may withdraw from any course or courses by submitting a Change of Schedule Form to the Office of the Registrar on or before the last day to withdraw from an individual course, as published in the academic calendar.

Students who withdraw from a course or courses on or before the last day to withdraw from an individual course are assigned a grade of “W”. Failure to attend class does not constitute a withdrawal from that course or courses. For withdrawals done beginning Fall 2014, students are limited to a maximum of two (2) withdrawals per course, up to a maximum of sixteen (16) credit hours during the student’s academic career. Upon a third (3) attempt in a single course, the student is not permitted to withdraw from the course and must receive a grade for the course.

A student who does not officially withdraw from a course or courses will be assigned a final grade in each course in which he or she was enrolled during the semester in question. Withdrawal from a course or courses may affect a student’s financial aid status, will count toward the tuition surcharge threshold, and may affect the student’s progress toward degree completion.

Students withdrawing from a course or courses with extenuating circumstances may affect a student’s financial aid status and may affect the student’s progress toward degree completion; however, the course or courses will not count in the tuition surcharge calculations. Extenuating circumstances may include military deployment, medical, psychological, unanticipated life events, or administrative reasons. Students seeking to withdraw from a course or courses do to extenuating circumstances must seek approval by completing the appropriate paperwork and providing appropriate documentation to the proper administrators specified in guidelines for course withdrawal for extenuating circumstances.

Students considering withdrawing from a courses or courses should consult their faculty advisor or academic unit advisor and the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Withdrawal from the University
Any student who is officially registered for classes and who wishes to withdraw from the university must complete the withdrawal process by the last day to withdraw from the university as published in the academic calendar.

Students who withdraw from the university prior to the published withdrawal deadline shall receive a “W” in all classes in which they were enrolled. Failure to attend classes does not constitute a withdrawal from the university. A student who does not officially withdraw from the university will be assigned the final grade earned in each course in which he or she was enrolled during the semester in question.

Withdrawal applications by students who have a pending judicial charge will not be processed by the registrar. Pending judicial charges must be cleared before a student may officially withdraw from the university.

Withdrawal from the university may have significant academic and/or financial aid implications. Students are strongly encouraged to seek advisement by their academic advisor or academic unit and financial aid officer before completing the withdrawal process.
Retroactive Withdrawal from the University

A student who was unable to initiate the process for withdrawal from the university by the last day to withdraw as published in the academic calendar may request a retroactive withdrawal. Requests for a retroactive withdrawal shall be considered on a case-by-case basis, and shall be based on the following:

a) serious illness or documented medical condition;
b) death of an immediate family member;
c) involuntary call to active military duty;
d) documented change in conditions of employment;
e) newly documented learning disability;
f) other emergency circumstances, legal requirements or extraordinary situations.

Written requests must be submitted prior to the end of the semester immediately following the semester for which the retroactive withdrawal is being requested. Before Sebastian Health Center or Counseling Services approves a retroactive withdrawal, the health care provider shall consult (with the student’s consent and without providing medical details) with the college dean in the student’s field of study for the dean’s input.

Except under extraordinary circumstances or to comply with legal requirements, for retroactive withdrawals subsequent to the effective date of this policy, students are limited to one retroactive withdrawal during their academic career.

Student Privacy Rights

FERPA is a Federal law, also known as the Buckley Amendment. It protects the privacy of a student’s educational records. The law applies to all educational agencies or institutions that receive funds under any program administered by the U.S. Secretary of Education. This law gives students certain rights:

- The right to inspect, review and seek to amend their educational records
- The right to file a complaint with the Family Compliance Office in Washington, D.C.
- The right to have directory information withheld
- The right to consent to the disclosure of educational records

Medical records are confidential. N.C. A&T adheres to federal and state laws which protect the confidentiality of your medical care. Student medical records are governed by HIPAA/FERPA guidelines and released to parents/guardians only if you are under 18 or if you have given written consent. Non-student medical records are governed by HIPAA laws.

Student Immunization Requirements

To protect the general health of the university community, new students have to complete Medical History health forms and immunization requirements by January 13, 2017. They can submit the required information by logging into the Online Student Health portal at https://ncat.medcatconnect.com with their Aggie ID and password.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacted G.S. 130A-155.1 requires persons attending a college or university, whether public, private or religious, to present a Certificate of Immunization or a record of immunization. Please provided a copy of the above immunization to the Student Health Center by fax to 336-256-2613.

International students and non-U.S. Citizens: Vaccines are required as noted above. Additionally, these students are required to have a Tuberculin (TB) skin test or blood test for TB with a negative result within the 12 months preceding the first day of classes (chest x-ray required if test is positive). The TB skin test or blood test for TB must be performed in a United States facility.

Please note: N.C. A&T Student Health Services administers both the TB skin test and the blood test for TB-Gold for international students.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy

To remain eligible for financial aid, student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP). Students must meet all conditions to remain eligible for aid. Failure to maintain the conditions will result in the suspension of financial aid until eligibility is regained or an appeal is approved.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

Students must maintain a 2.0 cumulative grade point average

Completion Rate – 67%

Students must complete 67% of all hours attempted including transfer hours accepted by the University.

Time frame - 150%

Students must complete their degree with 150 percent of the credits required for the degree.

Example: Degree requirement is 120 hours (120 x 150% = 180 hours)

North Carolina A&T State University is pleased to present you with the Tuition Payment Plan! This Plan is an affordable, interest-free alternative to paying your tuition and other campus expenses in full prior to each term.

Enroll in this payment plan and enjoy these great benefits:

- Interest Free Payment Option – enrollment fee due upon enrollment.
- More Time to Pay – Make tuition more manageable by paying in monthly installments.
- Automatic Updates – The payment plan will update automatically for any changes made to the account. (i.e. class charges are added or student insurance is removed.)
- No Worksheet to Fill Out
- Payments Post Immediately
- No Credit Check

Plans are available for the Fall and Spring terms only and cannot be used for books, parking permits, or prior term charges.

If you prefer your payments to be drafted automatically you must setup scheduled payments when you enroll in the payment plan. Scheduled payments (automatic draft) may not be added after the student is already enrolled in the plan.

The amount of your plan depends on the balance of your student account at the time you enroll in the plan. The balance will be divided evenly between the number of months within the plan. For example, a student enrolled in a 5 Month Payment Plan that has a $500 balance will pay $100 a month for 5 months.

- Any individual other than the student must be setup as an Authorized User to enroll in a payment plan.
- The student must be enrolled and a bill generated to setup a payment plan.
- Any payments not received by the due date will generate a Past Due Balance Hold on the student account until the payments are up to date. The student will not be able to see grades, register for the next semester or order a transcript until the account is up to date and the hold is removed.
- A late fee of $5 will be assessed for any payments received ten days after the due date.
- Electronic billing statements (E-Bill) from the University will be sent until the payment plan is complete or the balance is paid in full.
- A convenience fee of 2.75% will be added if you choose to submit payment by credit card or debit card. There is no convenience fee for electronic check.
WELCOME TO FERPA

FERPA is a Federal Law, also known as the Buckley amendment. It protects the privacy of a student's educational records. The law applies to all educational agencies or institutions that receive funds under any program administered by the Secretary of Education.

This law gives students certain rights:

The right to inspect, review and seek to amend their educational records

The right to file a complaint with the Family Compliance Office in Washington, D.C.

The right to have directory information withheld

The right to consent to the disclosure of educational records

The Right To Inspect, Review, and Seek to Amend Educational Records

Students have access to review their educational records at any time. If a student believes that any information in their record is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of their privacy rights, they may request in writing that the office which contains those records amend them. Educational records are housed in the Office of the Registrar.

The Right To File A Complaint With The Family Compliance Office

Students must have access to review their educational records at any time. If students believe that any information in their records is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of their privacy rights, they may request in writing that the office which contains those records amend them. Educational records are housed in the Office of the Registrar.

Students may file a complaint with the Family Compliance Office in Washington, DC if they feel that their rights under FERPA have been violated. Students should contact the North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University’s Office of the Registrar for information related to filing a complaint.

The Right To Have Directory Information Withheld

Directory information can be released without written consent of the student. However, FERPA provides that any student may upon written request, restrict the disclosure of directory information relating to themselves. At North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, directory information is defined as:

- Student’s Name
- College/School
- Address, Permanent and Mailing
- Major
- Class
- Gender
- Dates of Attendance
- Enrollment Status
- Telephone Number
- Degree and Awards Received
- Anticipated Date of Graduation
- Participation in Official Recognized Activities
- Most Recent Previous Educational Institution(s) Attended
- Email Address, University & Home
- Weight and Height of Athletes

A student may fill out a Non-Disclosure of Academic Records form in the Office of the Registrar during the first week of matriculation at the University if a student desires to have directory information withheld.

The Right To Consent To The Disclosure Of Educational Records

Permission of students must first be obtained before releasing non-directory information. Exceptions to this rule include releasing information to the following:

- Officials or faculty of the University who have legitimate educational interest (information needed to fulfill official responsibilities)
- Officials of other schools or school systems in which the student seeks to enroll
- Certain federal and state educational authorities
- Accrediting and University-approved testing agencies - if the student is applying to another school
- Appropriate parties in connection with an emergency when the immediate health or safety of the student is threatened
- Persons presenting an officially-related judicial order or lawfully-issued subpoena
- Institutions from which the student has received, or applied for financial aid

Prior to verification or release of the educational records, the University personnel must contact the Office of the Registrar to ensure that the student has not requested that any record information, including directory information, be disclosed.
