Is New Student Orientation Mandatory for Parents & Guests?

While it is not mandatory, it is highly encouraged!

Family & Guest Orientation includes:

- Sessions from key service departments on campus
- Campus tours
- Sharing experiences & meeting new Aggie families
- Answers to the questions that your student may not know or ask
- Information about upcoming programs
- A connection to North Carolina A&T State University
How Do I Register for New Student Orientation?

- Upon completion of your Intent to Enroll with the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, you will receive an email from the Office of New Student Programs with the New Student Orientation registration link.

- Visit the New Student Orientation registration link and create an orientation account, by completing the information requested on the page.

- Once you have created an orientation account, you will be able to select the orientation date of your choice (based on availability), as well as register and pay for guests.
Things to Remember

- Orientation is mandatory for all new students, with the exception of those indicated on slide 4.
- The date change fee is $15 per date change.
- Students eligible to attend New Student Orientation, will incur an orientation fee, regardless of attendance.
- The orientation fee for new students is reflected on the tuition bill for the upcoming semester.
- The orientation guest fee cannot be placed on the student’s account.
Things to Remember

- The orientation fee for guests can be made online at the time of registration or upon arrival at check-in during your orientation session.

- Anyone participating in orientation with the student is considered a guest, and is subject to the guest fee. This includes parents, siblings, friends, and extended family members.

- Students may register up to 2 guests.

- There is no waiting list for sessions that have reached capacity.
