**Minor and Certificate in Family Financial Planning ** Curriculum Guide Effective 2020-2021

Students who complete a minor in Family Financial Planning acquire knowledge and understanding of issues impacting individuals and families as they relate to financial literacy. A minor in FFP will prepare students for careers in the financial planning profession. The courses in the curriculum are rigorous and meet the Certified Financial Planner® Board of Standards education requirements. The minor provides the coursework to be eligible to sit for the Certified Financial Planner® Comprehensive Exam. Students may earn a certificate in Family Financial Planning upon graduation with a bachelor's degree after completing the courses in the minor.

A minor in Family Financial Planning requires 21 semester hours of credit as follows:
