Frequently Asked Questions

New Students/New Transfers:

How do I apply for housing?

You apply for housing by completing the online housing application at our Application Center and view the tutorial.

Who do I make the check or money order out to for the $150 application processing fee?

Once you have submitted the online application, please pay the $150 non-refundable application processing fee online with credit / debit card or mail a check / money order to North Carolina A&T State University, Housing Assignments Office, Aggie Village Building 2, 1601 E. Market Street, Greensboro, NC, 27411

When do I need to send in my housing application?

New students have up until they attend new student orientation to complete the housing application and pay the housing application processing fee.

When will incoming freshmen receive their housing assignment?

Housing assignments will be emailed one to two weeks after new students complete New Student Orientation to the students' assigned A&T email address.

How are the new incoming freshmen students assigned to a residence hall?

- Room Assignments are made in the order applications/application payments are received and students have successfully attended the New Student Orientation.
- We will match you with the best possible building and roommate preferences.
- We are expecting high demands for campus housing, please understand we cannot guarantee an assignment to your preferred building, roommates, or lifestyle request. Housing assignments are based availability and preferences are not guaranteed.

How do I cancel my application?

You must complete a housing cancellation form with supporting documentation for your reason for canceling. Note: Any cancellation request for new students after the deadline for early cancellation will be subject to cancellation penalties as documented in the student housing contract.

Is my $150 application processing fee refundable?

No, the application processing fee is non-refundable.

Can I use two forms of payment for payment for my housing application processing fee?

Yes, payments in the form of credit, check, and money order can be made in the office. Split payments or cash payments must be made of the treasurer's office, located in the Dowdy Building.

Can I request a room change for second semester? If so, what is the process?

Yes. Any time during or after the room change process you are able to change your room based on availability. Please talk with your hall director regarding room changes within your assigned building or report to the housing assignments office for an up to date listing of available spaces throughout the campus. Please be available to move as well as cover any additional charges to your student account resulting from your room change. Students are responsible for moving all items from their old room assignment and check into their new building/room within 24 hours of the room change.
